

London Mediators Day 2016

Saturday 8th October 2016

Outline and cost

The annual mediation conference

Venue	Resource for London 356 Holloway Road, London, N7 6PA
Organised by	London Community Mediation Council
Who should attend?	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Community mediators• Workplace and family mediators• RJ practitioners• Organisations and individuals interested in mediation• Members of organisations that refer cases for mediation• Social workers, social landlords, community police
Key Speakers	Elizabeth Stokoe Aled Davies Susanne Curran Barnaby Peel	Professor of Social Interaction, Loughborough University Founder and CEO, MediatorAcademy.com Executive Producer, Wild Films (BBC 2 Mr v Mrs: Call the Mediator) Series Producer/Director (BBC 2 Mr v Mrs: Call the Mediator)
Choice of Workshops choose two from these ten themes	Community mediation – Pushing the boundaries Restorative justice Language in conflict - Coded meanings Unconscious bias There's no justice, just us - Peer mediation at Bacon's College Turning points Mediation supervision Language in conflict - Concept of 'face' Building a successful mediation practice Managing the workplace bully
Discussion	BBC 2 Series: Mr v Mrs: Call the Mediator
Debate	Panel interviews, delegate participation
CPD	Six CPD points - approved by the College of Mediators - recognised by the FMA
Timing	9.15 am registration. 10.00am start. 5.00pm finish
Cost	Standard delegate fee	£100
	Volunteer community mediators	£75
	Group discount	10% for groups of 5 or more delegates
	Includes lunch and refreshments at registration, mid-morning and afternoon
Programme and booking forms	www.lcmc.org.uk/events.html	